Eastern Oregon OFB Trap Shoot set for Aug. 24

Editors: Please add this to your community calendar!

Farmers, ranchers, and supporters of Oregon agriculture are invited to attend the Oregon Farm Bureau Trap Shoot on Aug. 24 in Hermiston.

The event will take place on Wednesday, Aug. 24, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Hermiston Gun Club, 75772 Gun Club Road in Hermiston.

The entry fee includes a morning of trap shooting, refreshments, an awards presentation, and lunch. Top shooters will win great prizes!

Event sponsorships are also available.

Find registration and sponsorship information at oregonfb.org.

The trap shoot is a fundraiser for the OFB Political Action Committee.

The state's largest general farm organization, Oregon Farm Bureau (OFB) is a grassroots, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization representing the interests of the state's farmers and ranchers in the public and policymaking arenas. First established in Oregon in 1919, Farm Bureau is organized in all 36 counties and has 7,000 member families that are professionally engaged in agriculture.

Oregon Farm Bureau President Barry Bushue is a third-generation farmer raising a variety of vegetables and berries at a nearly century-old farm near Boring, Oregon. He is OFB's 15th president.
