FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 28, 2019
Contact: Anne Marie Moss, annemarie@oregonfb.org, 503.399.1701

Oregon Farm Bureau statement on Congressman Greg Walden's announcement that he will not seek reelection.

SALEM, OREGON, Oct. 28, 2019 – “This morning, Congressman Greg Walden announced that he will not seek a new term in Congress in the 2020 elections.

“It goes without saying, and as many in the Farm Bureau family already know, Greg has been a stalwart champion for Oregon agriculture.

“For us, Congressman Walden will be forever synonymous with Congressional District 2.

“We applaud and thank Greg for his tireless years in public service and wish him the very best in his next chapter. Thank you, Congressman Walden, for the time, energy, and unwavering dedication you have given to all Oregonians.”

###

* Note to Editors: “Farm Bureau” is a registered trademark; please capitalize in all cases.

Oregon Farm Bureau (OFB) is a grassroots, nonpartisan, nonprofit, general farm organization representing the interests of farming and ranching families in the public and policymaking arenas. First established in Oregon at the county level in 1919 and the state level in 1932, Farm Bureau is organized in all 36 counties.

Oregon Farm Bureau President Sharon Waterman is an OFB Hall of Fame honoree and operates a Century Ranch raising sheep, cattle, and timber in Bandon. She is OFB’s 16th president.